Dear All,

Attached please find a supplemental privilege log containing documents that were inadvertently left off the original log and a redaction log.

We are sending you the redaction log because we realized that we did not include documents redacted on the grounds of privilege on the original privilege log. As you can see from reviewing the log, a large amount of the redactions related to material that was after the production cut-off date, but we included them on the log anyway.

Best regards.
